Dear Mr. Satkowski,

Re: Fair Share Fee Objector Notice

In DATE (post July 2008), I wanted to resign my membership with the California Statewide Law Enforcement Association (CSLEA) and become a fair share fee objector with the union, reducing my membership to a rate of $31.50 per month, but was dissuaded from doing so by a CSLEA representative, who informed me that I was ineligible. The imposition has forced me to pay full union dues since then or suffer hundreds of dollars in financial hardship by removing legal protection and access to insurance while charging 100% full membership dues for a year.

In accordance with the PERB Case No. SA-CO-434-S, and PERB Case No. SA-CO-437-S, I hereby resign my membership in CSLEA and object to the paying of the full fair share or service fee.

Also, according to PERB Case No. SA-CO-434-S, and PERB Case No. SA-CO-437-S, I respectfully request that CSLEA reimburse me for the overpayment of union dues which I have suffered since month, year, complete with interest, and within 30-days.

Effective immediately, please recalculate and reduce my fees accordingly, notify the State Controller's Office and mail confirmation to the aforementioned address.

Sincerely,
