“I am looking for an association that takes care of their members, not their own pocket books. I am looking to be informed by our elected officers, not personally attacked for asking questions. I am looking for accountability when it comes to membership dues and spending, not false claims of transparency. I am looking for a legal defense fund that will defend their members’ rights, not just choose cases based on cost and loyalty. What are YOU looking for in a peace officer association???? If you are looking for a higher level of service, like me, I urge you to support P.O.C. and join me and the other courageous LAW ENFORCEMENT MEMBERS in this quest!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!”
